President Kagame arrived in London, where he joined other world leaders for the funeral of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

President Kagame, who is also the Chair-in-Office of the Commonwealth, began the day by signing the condolences book at Lancaster House. Later yesterday, the President attended a reception hosted by His Majesty King Charles III and the Queen Consort at Buckingham Palace.

On Monday, The President will join Heads of State and Government from across the world at Westminster Abbey for the funeral of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Earlier this week, President Kagame had the opportunity to express, through a phone conversation, his condolences to His Majesty King Charles III for the passing of his mother, Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

“I had the opportunity to express through a phone conversation my sincere condolences to His Majesty King Charles III for the passing of his mother Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Rwanda looks forward to working together with King Charles III to move the Commonwealth agenda forward in service of all our citizens,” The President tweeted after his call with King Charles III.
