

The 2023 Shell V-power Pearl of Africa Uganda Rally is set this weekend in Jinja district, Eastern Uganda.

The Pearl Rally is the third round of the Africa rally championship.

Thirty-one crews will battle but only seven will be eligible to score ARC points.

With African Rally Champions Karan Patel out of the rally in Uganda, the honours for the ARC points remain for Yasin Nassar and Jas Magat to take.

Karan Patel and Tauseef Khan in a Ford Fiesta are on their second attempt for the ARC title. They're the current leaders of the ARC leader board with six points ahead of Uganda's Yasin Nassar.

Seven stages will be covered on Saturday while five stages including super special stage will seal a total competitive distance of 205.27 kilometers.
