

The British High Commissioner to Rwanda, Omar Daair this Thursday visited the RDB (Rwanda Development Board) offices and held discussions with Clare Akamanzi, the Chief Executive Officer of RDB.

“A real pleasure to meet Clare Akamanzi and review the broad range of investment links across many sectors. I look forward to seeing those grow further!”, said Omar Daair via tweeter.

They discussed trade, investment, and tourism between the two countries and preparations for the upcoming 26th Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting to be held in Rwanda in the week of 20 June in Kigali.

Rwanda Development Board is a government department that integrates all government agencies responsible for the attraction, retention and facilitation of investments in the national economy.
