

On Tuesday, a high level security delegation from the Republic of Ghana, headed by the National Security Coordinator in the Ministry of National Security of Republic of Ghana, Ambassador Major General (Rtd) Francis Adu Amanfo visited the Rwanda Defence Force Chief of Defence Staff at RDF HQs.

The Ghanaian delegation also included the Armed Forces Chief of the Defence Staff, Vice Admiral Seth Amoama who travelled with his Chief of Defence Intelligence. Also accompanying the delegation, was the Secretary General of National Intelligence and Security Services of Rwanda, Maj Gen Joseph Nzabamwita.

Both delegations held bilateral talks to further deepen the existing Defence and Security relations.

Speaking after the visit, Maj Gen (Rtd) Amanfo said that their discussions focused on strengthening the Security and Intelligence relationship between the two countries.

This morning, Vice Admiral Seth Amoama and his delegation paid respect to the victims of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi at the Kigali Genocide Memorial and also visited the Campaign Against Genocide Museum.
