

President Paul Kagame this Monday received the President of Guinea-Bissau, Umaro Sissoco Embaló who is in the country for his first official visit.

President Umaro Sissoco Embaló arrived today at the Kigali International Airport where he was welcomed by Minister of Foreign Affairs Vincent Biruta for a three-day Official Visit to Rwanda.

Umaro Sissoco Embaló is the President of Guinea-Bissau since 27 February 2020. He is a political scientist and military officer who previously served as prime minister between 18 November 2016 and 16 January 2018.