

The Rwandan Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, Dr Vincent Biruta received this Wednesday his Somalian counterpart Abdisaid Muse Ali, who is on an official visit in Kigali.

According to the Foreign Affairs Ministry, the two leaders held discussions that focused on further strengthening of cooperation between the two countries.

“It was a pleasure to have been received by Rwanda’s Foreign Minister, Vincent Biruta, on my official bilateral visit to Kigali”, Minister Abdisaid said via tweeter.

Minister Abdisaid further indicated that they held discussions on enhancing political, security and economic cooperation. “Somalia and Rwanda share historic relations and I look forward to strengthening our fraternal ties between Somalia and Rwanda.