President Kagame this Monday attended the Africa Aviation Summit and Exhibition, bringing together global aviation leaders, government officials, policy-makers and more for discussions on ideas that will shape the future of the aviation industry.

The 6th Aviation Africa summit and Exhibition 2022, is a 2 day summit and exhibition events that is taking place at Radisson Blu, Kigali Convention Centre, from 12-13 September 2022.

On the sidelines of the Aviation Africa Summit, President Kagame met with Akbar Al Baker, Group CEO of Qatar Airways. President Kagame also met with Israeli Ambassadors based in Africa on the sidelines of the Aviation Africa Summit.

Speakers at the summit include leaders from African airlines, civil aviation authorities, business aviation & support industries. Hosted by the Rwanda Civil Aviation Authority, RwandAir, ATL, Rwanda Airports Company and Rwanda Air Force, the summit is a live networking event bringing together major entities in the aviation industry – the largest gathering of aviation professionals throughout the African continent. (End)