This afternoon at Urugwiro Village, President Kagame received Victoria Kwakwa, Vice President for Eastern and Southern Africa at the World Bank.

They discussed the exponential growth in electrification across the country and the World Bank plan to prioritize private sector investment and poverty reduction.

The World Bank is one of the largest development partners of Rwanda with key support in various sectors including infrastructure, agriculture, education, skills development, social protection, among others.