

President Kagame today received a Delegation from the DRC who delivered a message from President Tshisekedi in view of the good bilateral relations between Rwanda and the DRC.

President Kagame discussed with the delegation how to advance further the existing cooperation.

The Delegation also briefed President Kagame the political situation in DRC and the political consultations being undertaken by President Tshisekedi.

President Kagame gave a message of support to his counterpart as he seeks a political solution to the hardships the situation presents.