This afternoon, President Kagame received Kristalina Georgieva, the Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) for discussions on ongoing fruitful partnerships.

As one of the pilot countries of the Resilience and Sustainability Trust, Rwanda will access $319 million to support climate change initiatives.

The Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund, Kristalina Georgieva, is in Rwanda for a three-day working visit.