

President Paul Kagame and his Guinean counterpart Mamadi Doumbouya held a tête-à-tête this Friday 26 January 2024 in Kigali.

“This afternoon at Urugwiro Village, President Kagame received President Mamadi Doumbouya of Guinea for a tête-à-tête, which was followed by bilateral talks with their respective delegations”, the Rwandan State house said on Friday afternoon.

President of Guinea and First Lady Lauriane Doumbouya are in Rwanda for a three-day Official Visit during which the two Heads of State hold tête-à-tête and bilateral meetings aimed at further strengthening the existing bilateral cooperation.
