

Thursday morning, at the Apostolic Nunciature to Rwanda, Clementine Mukeka, the Permanent Secretary in the Rwandan Ministry of Foreign Affairs, signed the condolences book for His Holiness Pope Francis, who passed away on Monday, 21 April 2025.

“On behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, I wish to extend our deepest condolences to the Government of the Holy See, the Catholic Church, and all faithful around the world for the loss of His Holiness Pope Francis. His Holiness was a cherished spiritual leader whose compassion and love for others inspired millions, including here in Rwanda. May His legacy continue to live on through the work of the Church and the actions of all those with whom he shared a calling”, Clementine Mukeka wrote in the condolences book.

The Apostolic Nunciature to Rwanda has officially launched a public condolences book for anyone to write farewell messages in memory of the late Pope Francis.
