

After only two months, Rayon Sports FC has amicably confirmed parting ways with Tunisia coach Yamen Zelfani.

According to the Blues, the club and coach parted ways by mutual consent on Sunday.

Rayon dropped two points on Saturday when they were held to a 2-all draw by Marine FC.

After the game, the fans slammed the coach for making the wrong substitutions during the match.

Others went on radio and social media to even accuse him of having 'no clue' how to use his bench, and believe his decision was 'poor game management'.

The Tunisians had a convincing start to the season, defeating rivals APR FC 3-0 during the Super Cup season opener. The club then drew 1-all with Al Hilal in the CAF Confederation before losing the second leg on penalties (2-4).

In the local national league, however, the results were not impressive. Rayon has only won against Gasogi United and drawn three times against Marines FC, Amagaju FC, and Gorilla FC.

Rayon Sports dropped two points in Rubavu on Saturday, drawing 2-2 with Marines FC in an untimely Matchday Four match.

The draw also ended Rayon Sports' three-game winless streak in the Championship where they currently have six points from four matches.

The management of Rayon Sports said that an early departure of the coach would be the best decision to not continue to lose points at all which would ruin this team's line to compete for the Championship.

Rayon Sports will return to action on Wednesday, October 11, when they host Etoile de l'Est at 4:00 p.m. at Nyamirambo.
