

In the framework of international cooperation in fighting cross-border crime, today, Rwanda this Wednesday, 27th November 2024, extradited Salman Khan alias Salma (30 years) wanted by the Government of India for his association with a Terrorist group operating on its territory.

The suspect was arrested in Kigali based on an INTERPOL red notice issued by the Republic of India.

The extradition of the suspect demonstrates the commitment of the Government of Rwanda not to allow criminals to make the country a safe haven.
