

Fans can expect some of the biggest Rwandan artists on stage and curated music experience from some of the city's hottest such as DJ Sonia & Hottempah Collective and an international DJ, Fully Focus (Kenya).

The Basketball Africa League (BAL) this Tuesday, announced the lineup of artists and entertainers who will headline the entertainment at the BK Arena when the BAL Playoffs & Finals tips off on May 24 in Kigali, Rwanda.

Nigerian global superstar Adekunle Gold will grace the stage alongside some of Rwanda's hit makers including The Ben, Juno Kizigenza, Alyn Sano, Chris Eazy and more!

Fan Zone

The Fan Zone, situated at BK Arena parking lot, will be open to fans on game days from 2:00 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. CAT and during weekends from 3 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. CAT.

The Fan Zone will offer a range of activities for both the young and adults, including 3-on-3 basketball games, food trucks, a photo booth, and music by DJ Loft and DJ Kim.

In-Arena Entertainment

The Playoffs & Finals fan in-arena experience will feature pre-game and halftime performances by music artists, dancers, drummers, and dunk teams. Fans can expect some of the biggest Rwandan artists on stage and curated music experience from some of the city's hottest such as DJ Sonia & Hottempah Collective and an international DJ, Fully Focus (Kenya).

Starting May 24, every game will showcase diverse performers catering to all age groups; Adekunle Gold, Juno Kizigenza, Alyn Sano & Chris Eazy will perform during the opening weekend. Kivumbi King, Ariel Wayz & The Ben will close the Finals with halftime performances during the closing weekend May 31 - June 1, 2024.