

The Jaguar Bus registration number 736G Isuzu en route from Rwanda to Kampala, Uganda was involved in a road accident in which three people were killed and nearly eight were injured.

An allegedly dozing Jaguar Bus driver died on the spot after losing control of the vehicle on Ssembabule road in Uganda over the weekend.

According to Uganda Police, the deceased driver was identified as David Assimwe. The injured passengers were transported to Maddu Health Center.