Wizkid and Tems took home the Collaboration of the Year award at the 2021 Soul Train Awards for their popular track, Essence. The show took place on Sunday, November 28th, 2021.

The song which has been nominated in the 2021 Grammy Awards has received reviews all over the world.

The talented singer in the song which featured Tems clinched the Best Collaboration award at the Apollo Theatre in New York on Sunday night.

The song was nominated in other categories; however, it was not strong enough to beat the winner to clinch the awards in those categories.

The Soul Train award celebrates the best in African-American culture, music, and entertainment.

In the other related news, hundreds of Wizkid fans gatecrashed to watch him at 02 Arena Wizkid to live-stream “Made in Lagos” concert from London’s O2 Arena.